

SAIL gets Good Corporate Citizen Award

Steel Authority of India (SAIL) was awarded the PHD Chamber Good Corporate Citizen Award 2014. Chairman, SAIL, Shri CS Verma received the award from Hon'ble Union Minister of Road Transport, Highways and Shipping Shri Nitin Gadkari in a glittering award ceremony. Instituted in 1997, PHD Chamber Annual Awards for Excellence are given in recognition of outstanding achievements or contributions in selected areas and for promoting corporate and individual initiatives in economic, social, educational and cultural areas to Indian businesses, entrepreneurs and individuals. Chairman SAIL, Shri CS Verma after receiving the award thanked the jury and said, "SAIL is committed to continuously improving its social responsibilities, environment and economic practices to make a positive impact on society". SAIL has been making conscious and well thought efforts towards nurturing a culture that supports flexibility, learning and has been working in the direction of sustainable growth. Along with setting new bench marks in production, technology and growth, the company undertakes large number of corporate social responsibility initiatives regularly. SAIL recognizes the direct and indirect impact of its business activities on society and strives to integrate its business values and operations in such a way that facilitates comprehensive growth for all. SAIL CSR activities are carried in and out of its steel townships, mines and far flung areas across the country. Providing medical and healthcare, education, access to water facilities, construction of roads, sanitation, development of model steel villages, women empowerment etc. have always found top slot in the CSR initiatives. The company takes several initiatives for energy conservation, water conservation, recycle/reuse, reduction in hazardous emissions, safe disposal of hazardous materials and solid waste management. SAIL believes in building continuous good relations with all its stakeholders and in making a meaningful difference in people's lives.

Tata Steel conferred 'Business of the Year' award

Tata Steel, bagged the 'Business of the Year' award also called the Sustainability trophy at the CII-ITC Sustainability Award 2014 ceremony, held on Dec 19, 2014 in Delhi. The award function was graced by Shri Prakash Javadekar, Minister for Environment, Forests and Climate Change, Govt. of India as the Chief Guest. Smt. Meenakshi Lekhi, Member of Parliament was the Guest of Honor at the award function. Also, present at the function was Mr. Y C Deveshwar, Chairman, ITC Limited and past president, CII, chairman, CII-ITC Centre of Excellence for Sustainable Development Advisory Council. Mr. Koushik Chatterjee, Group Executive Director, Finance and Corporate, Tata Steel, Mr. Sunil Bhaskaran, Vice President, Corporate Services, Tata Steel and Mr. Shubhenjit Chaudhuri, Chief, Corporate Sustainability, Tata Steel received the award in presence of dignitaries and representatives from the Government and leaders of the corporate world. The annual CII-ITC Sustainability Awards is conferred to Indian businesses that demonstrate excellent performance in the area of Sustainable Development. They are given out to recognize and reward excellence in economic, environmental and social performance. The 'Business of the Year' award is the highest award on Sustainability in the country and recognizes the company that has successfully proven a business case for sustainability and demonstrates a company-wide commitment to advancing the sustainable business agenda; not just internally but among customers, suppliers and the industry as well.